Lagos (Algarve), Portugal

With its long, sandy beaches and rocky coves the Algarve Region, in the Southern Coast of Portugal, is the most visited region in the country. A series of tiny bays and coves broken up by weird rocky outcrops and fantastic grottoes are around Lagos where you will find our hotels. The mild climate and the sunshine year-round make it an ideal holiday spot.

Costa D'Oiro Hotel Epoque Classic Superior

The Costa D'Oiro Hotel is an adorable cosy resort hotel just a few minutes from the beaches and the historical town of Lagos, the most picturesque and beautiful part of the Algarve Coast. Every room has its own balcony. The design and architecture respects the tradition of the region, with a touch of colour such as the yellow umbrellas by the pools. The hotel boasts 5 pools, one of which indoor.

Location: Residential area on the outskirts of Lagos. The local Porto de Mós beach is at 300m walking distance and 1000 meters away from two of the most beautiful beaches in the Algarve, Praia D. Ana and Praia do Camilo. 1000 meters from the historical town centre.

Annexed to the hotel is their sister property Vila Mar Azul with 10 handsome rooms.

Monte D'oiro Refugio Design Hotel Epoque Classic Superior

A very special and exclusive hotel with lots of character. Monte D'Oiro represents originality and diversity: its architecture (Nuno de Sousa, Cascais, Portugal), its décor, its equipment (Maurer, Starck and Kartell), its location and its ambience. This small and exclusive hotel has a beautiful garden, sun terrace, sauna and a wine cellar with complimentary wine tasting. The pool area is an eye-catcher with its two specially designed pools embedded in stone and an open-air whirlpool.

Location: At the top of a hill to the north west of the town of Lagos, with a panoramic view across Lagos Bay. Lagos centre, the stunning beach of Meia Praia. A choice of golf courses is reached by car in a few minutes.
