Ca' Gottardi Hotel Epoque Classic Comfort

An antique Venetian palace from the 15th century. Its interiors are the result of an accurate and refined use of materials and techniques; a sensitive approach to forms and volumes in accordance with Venetian artistic tradition. Embracing the creativity of Italian design with a touch of luxury, typical of the great patrician residences, the Ca' Gottardi overlooks the Rio de Noal with a balcony covered by a beautiful late 17th century quadrifora window.

Location: Along one of Venice's most famous streets: Strada Nuova, next to the Vendramin Calergi palace, today home of the Casinò and near the Ponte di Rialto.
