

Vienna, Austria

The City of Music, Waltzes and Cafes, Queen of The Danube, capital of the great Austro-Hungarian Empire of the 19th century and capital of today's Austrian nation, its allure is elegant, grand and refined.

Hotel Das Triest Avantgarde Superior

The building, called STADT TRIEST (city of Trieste) was originally used as the main station and a stable for the horses pulling the stage-coaches between Vienna and Trieste. These old cross-vaulted rooms, which give the building a distinctive flair, have been transformed into lounges, suites and meeting rooms. DAS TRIEST is a perfect example for the symbiosis of history and modern design. Vienna finally has its own chic hotel centrepiece, a sharp contrast to the city's charming, late 19th-century Art Nouveau architecture.

Location: The Das Triest Vienna is a luxury hotel located in the heart of the metro city. It is near St. Stephen's Cathedral and Vienna's City Center.
