

Ibiza, Spain

Ibiza is an island of indulgence. Beautiful, and blessed with scores of stunning cove beaches, towering cliffs and dense pine forests, it's nevertheless the islanders and the visitors who make it special. However outrageous you may want to be (and outrageousness is the norm here) the locals have seen it all before. The extraordinary nightlife can claim to be the globe's clubbing capital. Ibiza Town, the capital, is the obvious place to base yourself and only a short ride from two great beaches - Ses Salines and Es Cavellet

El Hotel Pacha Avantgarde Superior

If you have dreamt of a funky hotel in Ibiza, just by the famous Pacha nightclub, you have found what you were looking for. Just renovated in April 2005, this contemporary state of the art hotel is, without any doubt the trendiest place to stay in Ibiza. The main colour scheme throughout the hotel is white, the coffee is black, and the sky and sea is blue. El Hotel has a pool, restaurant and lounge.

Location: right on Paseo Maritimo, opposite Pacha nightclub, in the heart of Ibiza.
