

Valencia, Spain

Sitting at the Turia River on the Mediterranean Sea, with the converted riverbed park, modern art museum, and the stunning City of Arts and Sciences, this city's charm cannot pass without notice by its visitors. Full of history, ancient buildings are being cleaned and restored, blending with the spirit of an emerging young industrial landscape. Come to Valencia, enjoy the festival of Fallas, eat Paella and visit its wonderful museums and theatres.

Palau de la Mar Hotel Avantgarde Luxury

The Palau del Mar is a new addition to the cultural and creative scene of one of Spain's most lively cities, Valencia. Continuing a tradition of fine cuisine and hospitality, the Palau de la Mar is a modern remodelling of two palaces, an immaculately developed and advanced concept, the hotel is the work of prestigious interior designers Isabel Lopez and Sandra Tarruella. The result a welcoming space that surprises and delights. Palau de la Mar offers a range of facilities including an extensive fitness suite with heated pool and an intimate library. Rounding off this authentic experience, the hotel's restaurant presents a range of local dishes, prepared with the finest Valencian ingredients.

Location: superbly located in the heart of the commercial centre and 5-minute walk to the historical quarter. One block from Porta de la Mar.

Address Calle Navarro Reverter
14-16 - 46004 Valencia
Spain.

Tel. 34 96 3162884
USA Toll Free: 1 866 376 7831
66 Rooms

www.avantgardehotels.com/hospespalauedelmar.html

