EPOQUE HOTELS

Hotel Internazionale Epoque Classic Comfort

From the historical point of view - just like the wisteria that, growing up from the first floor, touches the roof - the Hotel Internazionale is rooted in a series of constructions which are dating back to the of Sixtus the Fifth, in the 16th century, but raised on the remains of buildings belonging to the "Horti Luculliani" of the 1st century B.C. Many of these structures are still visible thanks to meticulous care during the renovation - A Hotel since 1870 – with a lot of history and charm, meeting all the modern comforts.

Location: Downtown Rome, right at Trinità de' Monti, Piazza di Spagna (Spanish Steps). Via Veneto is just a few minutes walk.
