

Madrid, Spain

The grand capital of Spain, vibrant and imposing, immortalized in Almodovar's genial and eclectic movies. Its nightlife is legendary. Home to one of the greatest museums in the world: El Prado. Madrid hosts a number of first class cultural venues. The Old Quarter with the Plaza Mayor at its centre, the array of tapas bars, and the Barrio Salamanca, is known for its elegance. Madrid will leave a strong impression in your memory.

Hotel De las Letras Avantgarde Luxury

Located at No. 11, Gran Vía in Madrid, the Hotel De las Letras H&R aims to be a focal point for the world of culture, literature and the Arts.

The totally refurbished building offers inventive rooms with motifs related to the world of art and literature. The hotel features an exquisite combination of the building's original glazed tiles, canopies, and stone carvings coupled with the latest in interior design. The building is crowned by a terrace offering a unique view across the rooftops of Madrid.

The restaurant, located on the ground is the ideal place to have a drink, watch and be watched. De las Letras H&R is the perfect combination of art, work and culture.

Location: De las Letras Hotel is located on one of the most important streets of Madrid "La Gran Vía". This lively street combines everything what Madrid has to offer at the finest levels: restaurants, designer shops, cinemas, galleries, and beautiful buildings.

Address Gran Vía, 11,
Madrid 28013, Spain.

Tel. 34 91 4357545
USA Toll Free: 1 866 376 7831
103 Rooms

www.avantgardehotels.com/lasletras.html

