Perugia Umbria, Italy

Perugia, Italy

Birthplace of Saints, heart of Italy and home to some of the country's greatest artistic treasures, Umbria is at once ancient and timeless. The hills, olive groves and terraced vineyards of this mystic province are often wrapped in a bluish haze that gives its landscape an ethereal painted look. Perugia is the capital, explore the region and the various towns such as: Assisi, Gubbio, Todi, Spoleto and Calzolaro.

Castello di Petroia in Gubbio Epoque Classic Superior

Petroia Castle is a conglomerate of medieval buildings enclosed within Castle walls that date back to 1163. Situated between Gubbio and Perugia in Umbria, Petroia Castle was the scene of many important events of the XII to the XIV centuries. These events are written in documents of that period, which are still conserved. The restoration of the entire complex, aimed at the recuperation of all its parts, and Petroia continues to live.

Enjoy the warm hospitality of an ancient family which, not wanting to transform their Castle into a cold museum, preferred to give their guests an opportunity to live a few days as real lords of the Castle. Six rooms, each with private bath and living room are for our guests who can live throughout the Castle, its park, forest and lawns.

Location: Located between Perugia (30 km), Gubbio (13 km) and Assisi (28km), in the Umbrian hills at 500mts of altitude.
