

EPOQUE HOTELS

Chicago, USA

Chicago, Illinois

Chicago, also known as the "Windy City", tops the world in modern architecture - a manual of American dexterity. Add legendary blues & jazz, and tasty steaks and you got yourself one special destination. The Loop is the historic centre and The Magnificent Mile is best for shopping and the adjacent Gold Coast district best for its designer shops, nightlife, and restaurants. Bathed by an enormous lake, brings a seaside feel right in the middle of the North American continent.

The Talbott Hotel

Epoque Classic Luxury

The Talbott is a refreshing classic, a change from the bigger, commercial ventures. Born in the roaring 20's, it has been fully renovated and restored. Today the Talbott is one of the finest charming hotels in the city. The fireplaces in the lobby makes it one of Chicago's most special spots during the winter months. During the warmer months, take advantage of the outdoor cafe and restaurant. Conference facilities for up to 200 people.

Location: On an elegant tree-lined street in the heart of Chicago's prestigious Gold Coast, just off the Magnificent Mile.
