Ventana Hotel

Epoque Classic Superior

But a few steps through the foyer of the Ventana Hotel and the style and comfort are proclaimed. The floor and the portico are riveted with Italian marble elegantly aligned with the other components of furniture and accessories in the hall, also adorned with iron ware and sophisticated lighting, illuminating the high, stuccoed ceilings. No less impressive are the common areas of the library, bar and restaurant. Take advantage of this elegant environment for meetings or for comfortable relaxation with a book from the rich selection at the hotel library. Keeping the same focus in mind to maximum comfort and convenience, each of the thirty rooms is unique in its size and shape.

Location: From the front of the hotel, the Old Town Square unfolds with its famous astronomical clock. Charles Bridge is situated just a bit further away. Beyond the bridge, there is the Prague Castle. Not far off are the well-known Wenceslas Square and more.
