

San Sebastián, Spain

San Sebastián, Spain

Located in Northern Spain in the Basque Country, marked by Belle Epoque style buildings reminiscing the era when the city was the official summer residence of the Spanish royal family, San Sebastián is Spain's undisputed gastronomic capital, and the famous "La Concha " beach has the most perfect half-moon shape that nature could carve.

Hotel Villa Soro Epoque Classic Superior

Villa Soro is a boutique hotel located in a renovated 19th century villa, which has been declared a Historical Heritage Building of San Sebastián.

Villa Soro is an outstanding new address for the discerning traveller, offering a harmonious balance between the warm and familiar atmosphere of century-old home and the comfort and services of a luxury hotel.

Villa Soro has been renovated in its integrity with high quality materials, respecting the late nineteenth century style of the house and accentuating its uniqueness and extraordinary beauty.

Tranquillity, warmth and courtesy are the main characteristics of the Villa Soro. A garden specially designed by the French landscape designer Ducasse in 1898, pleasant living areas reminiscing the family atmosphere of this stately home, and a very professional team permanently at your service.

Location: located in the centre of San Sebastián, within a five-minute walk to the Zurriola beach, the Kursaal Concert and Convention Centre and the old part of town.

Address: Avda. Ategorrieta, 61 - 20013 San Sebastián, Spain. Tel. 34 943 297970
USA Toll Free: 1 866 376 7831 www.epoquehotels.com/villasoro.html
25 Rooms

